Comskip is a tool to automatically remove commercials from any video files that are recorded on your PC. Comskip is completely free and does not require admin rights to install. One of the best commercial removal tools for Windows. Comskip is best solution for ad removal from any recorded video files. Comskip is best solution to remove commercials from recorded video files. What's new in version 3.0.2: Fixed the bug that randomly splits the input file in smaller pieces. Added an option to create log file. Added option to import log file. Comskip - Advertisement Remover After weeks of hard work, Soulcalibur VI is here! If you've been wondering if it will live up to the legacy of the series, you're in luck. This is definitely the game I've been waiting for since the announcement. You can get the game for free on PS4, Xbox One, Nintendo Switch, and PC on April 5, 2018. For that week, it's also on sale for 50% off, so make sure to check it out if you haven't gotten it already. If you haven't heard of Soulcalibur before, here's what makes it special. It's got great characters, tons of modes, and loads of customization. The gameplay is so tight you'll be able to beat it on your first try! The only downside is that the graphics look dated. If you're looking for the best fighting game of the last decade, Soulcalibur VI is it. Things to know - Unlike other fighting games, you can win by KO'ing the other player, blocking, or just getting your attack to connect. - You need to time your combos and its pressure attacks carefully to win. - SIX different weapon sets, 3 per fighter. - Tons of customization, like color schemes, and different styling for your weapons. - You can choose between six character classes to play as. Your classes are Light Blade (sword/shield), Heavy Blade (hammer), Dark Blade (machete), Dark Staff (nunchaku), Fire Blade (kukri), and War Sword (sabre). - The introduction and exit animations are of legendary Japanese manga artist, b7e8fdf5c8

Why watch your favorite shows commercial-free? Why not? Since Comskip is a free utility, you do not need to run it on a daily basis to access its features. It will work fine even if you do not have its executable file on your computer. However, if you have it, you will access a lot of useful functions, such as commercial skipping. It is a free utility, and if you do not mind the command line and learning it, it will help you save some money while viewing recorded TV shows. I'm assuming that you haven't updated your Comskip for a while. I'm using the latest version (2.6), but I haven't updated it for a while now, but to be on the safe side... The Comskip now has an updated interface (the whole interface is much better now). You should upgrade to the latest version to have the best and up-to-date experience. I ran into a problem recently: I couldn't shut down my PC (running Windows 8.1). To solve this, I updated to Comskip 2.8 (a new version), and everything worked out. The only thing I'll tell you is that when you launch Comskip, try to pause and resume playback a while after initializing. The first time you launch Comskip it will pause for about 10 seconds before resuming playback, but after that it should work fine. [1] Don't forget to uninstall the Comskip 1.x version before you install the Comskip 2.x version. [2] I know that this isn't the best way to do it but at least it works. Just go to the Comskip folder, and open Comskip.exe in a text editor (Notepad++) and replace 0.0 with 1.0 in every line starting with (34, 51, 67, 82). The only thing I'm complaining about is that now I'll have to adjust my subscription every time I launch Comskip. [3] I do wish the interface was more customizable (like the old version had). On Sunday, May 16th, 2019, I was looking for another app to enable me to skip commercials from recorded TV shows on my computer. I had tried Comskip a few months ago, but the version that I had was so outdated that it was not working correctly. So, I wanted to give it another try, but not with the older version. I then went back to
